

THE GAMES were on

Dot

Saturday, May 14th, turned out to be a bad day weather wise. Severe storms were predicted for the late afternoon, but quite a few brave souls showed up for the trail ride and Family Picnic at Karen and Dennis Morgan's Windy Hill Farm, Stem. For the ride, I believe that we had about 16 riders and many of those participated in the games which consisted of pulling down the Monster tire with its appropriate shinny "THINGS" that swung back and forth when the tire was pulled down—RIGHT HORSES! Then there was that water hole (blue tarp, of course) with its whirly-gig man who sprayed water sometimes and sometimes he circled and sprayed water. Great for getting a shower—right Rocky. Then you moved on to shooting the pellet gun trying to hit the balloon above “Ned Pepper’s” head. Well, guess what, only one person did that—our winner. Next came the “PINK NOODLES” pass thru and onto the “Blue Tarp” with cobwebs pass under (Rocky took the cobwebs down). Lastly, you pick up a pitcher of water pour a plastic glass full while still on the horse then carry glass of water over posts on the ground without spilling any.

Participating in the games were: Dot Black, Barb Curtis, Kristen Fisher, Kevin Gilliam, Jan Hart, Rick Hoppenworth, Reives Jones, Koren Kartes, Dennis Morgan, Barbara Parker, Elaine Ray, Linda Sauls, Susan Willis and Natalie Wilbourne. Winners were: 1st place went to Linda Sauls, 2nd to Dot Black, 3rd to Rich Hoppenworth, 4th to Susan Willis. The Consolation Prize went to our trail leader Dennis Morgan. We want to thank our judges – Ernestine Parrott on 1st obstacle; Shirley Cates on 2nd; Ray Dean on 3rd; Lynn Dean on 4th; Karen Morgan on 5th and Jane Hoppenworth on 6th.

The rain had held off as long as it possibly could and aslmost every one finished the games—Kevin even took his horse thru as all others
